	“Answering The Call offers over 200 pages of truly interesting history about firefighting in Caledon, along with a broad range of reassuring information about just how modern, and how extensive, the Town’s firefighting force has become. What the book also does exceptionally well is tell a great human story, difficult to do in a publication with such a broad mandate, but Answering the Call manages the task superbly. From beginning to end, a reader never loses sight of the commitment, the sense of duty, the bravery, and most of all the spirit that prevails among the individual firefighters of Caledon, and throughout the volunteer brigades to which they belong.” - excerpt from review by Ken Weber	$21.00

You will find a short write-up on all of the ministers that have served this congregation over the past 25 years.”	$10.50

	"The history was originally written to celebrate the centennial of the present Palgrave United Church building in 1978." "By 2005, it had become obvious that the Village of Palgrave, and Palgrave United Church, had grown and evolved in the years since 1978, and the original book needed a section added to reflect this growth."	$5.25
	"The School on the Hill shares many memories of former students and teachers. 	"This is not a date-to-date history.... It is not a complete history... nor is it always factual. Records and memories go back only so many years... stories of pioneer days have been handed down from generation to generation.... some things have been forgotten.... others have been remembered... and so the stories differ, and does the spelling of some old family names." Berniece Trimble "Author Berniece Trimble has faithfully recorded the history of the people and institutions which are woven into the fabric of our heritage." W.E. (Bill) Doole	$14.49

	A sequel to "Belfountain" Caves, Castles and Quarries in the Caleodn Hills". A collection of pictures and memories.	$8.45
