The Town of Caledon is now accepting nominations for the 2012 honouree for the Caledon Walk of Fame. Since 1999, Caledon's Walk of Fame has been honouring local individuals who have made a significant contribution to the quality of life – not only in the local community, but nationally and internationally as well.

Famous recent inductees include:

- Norman Jewison; Oscar-winning film director
- Elmer Iseler; conductor, arranger, founder of the Elmer Iseler Singers
- Robert and Signe McMichael; founders of the McMichael Canadian Art Collection in Kleinberg
- Farley Mowatt; world-renowned author
- Conn Smythe; sportsman, former owner of the Toronto Maple Leafs
- James B. Douglas; actor, producer, director, writer, and heritage activist
- Tayler Parnaby; a veteran reporter, commentator and news broadcaster

A full list of inductees can be found at www.caledon.ca

Nominees must be Canadian citizens who have achieved local, national and international recognition for their paid or volunteer contribution in one or more of the following areas:

- Arts & Culture: organizing, instructing or promoting arts and culture
- Sports & Leisure: community, sports, youth or other recreational groups
- Philanthropic & Humanitarian Causes: service clubs, social services or health care
- Environmental Initiatives: innovative programs or initiatives addressing environmental issues

Other categories may be considered as submitted. All nomination forms must be submitted to the Town of Caledon by 4:00 p.m. on Thursday, March 8, 2012. Nomination forms are available online at www.caledon.ca, from the Parks & Recreation Department at Town Hall, or by calling 905.584.2272 x.4235.
